Fill the grid with words from the list below. As your teacher calls out the questions and clues tick off the correct answer if you have it in your grid. The first one to a full house wins!

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Birling</th>
<th>Edna</th>
<th>Daisy Renton</th>
<th>Brumley</th>
<th>Eva Smith</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Eric</td>
<td>Mrs Birling</td>
<td>Goole</td>
<td>Sheila</td>
<td>engagement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gerald</td>
<td>knighthood</td>
<td>Milwards</td>
<td>each other</td>
<td>Titanic</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>port</td>
<td>World War One</td>
<td>Colonel Roberts</td>
<td>World War Two</td>
<td>Crofts Ltd.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Bingo questions and clues

1. The head of the household
2. The faithful servant
3. He was a bit squiffy a lot of the time
4. He inspected them alright
5. Gerald’s family’s business name
6. What they get squiffy on
7. The inspector says we must all take responsibility for whom?
8. Birling says he’s going to get one of these
9. The fictional name of the town
10. Unsinkable, absolutely unsinkable. What is?
11. ‘To that I say fiddlesticks’ - what was Birling saying fiddlesticks to?
12. Women are ‘potty’ about clothes. Where did Sheila buy them from?
13. He was up to no good last summer
14. Believes the girl is to blame
15. Eva changed her name to this when she met Gerald
16. The inspector says there are many more of this person in the world
17. The name of the police inspector who Birling is best chums with
18. She is horrified by her actions and changes as a result of the inspector’s visit
19. What they’re celebrating at the beginning of the play
20. This was taking place when the play was written