Scrooge gradually changes throughout the novel, because of the things he sees and hears. In each of the boxes, describe what happens to Scrooge and explain how these events affect him and change his attitude to life...