Top ten features

Working in pairs:
1. Read the list of features below and add an extra point of your own choice if you like.
2. Now rank order the features from one to ten, starting with the one that best characterises the play for you as a reader.
3. For your top three features, find evidence from the text to support and explain your choices.
4. Justify your choice to the rest of the group, making use of the evidence you have found.

This is a play...

- with a complex central character
- about death versus survival
- about the exploitation of women
- about power and conflict
- that is better described as a fictional family biography
- exploring a changing social structure
- about love and romance
- with a particular historical and geographical setting
- with a striking and meaningful title and central image
- about disappointment
- in which ............................................................... (not listed above) is important.
