DISCOVERY

Summarise in your own words.

Although the night watchmen have overheard the plot and caught Borachio and Conrade, no one listens to them.

1. Why do you think they are ignored?

2. Why do you think Shakespeare wrote it so that they would be ignored – what is the effect on the audience?
RESOLUTION

Circle the correct word.

1. Leonato resolves the problem of getting Hero married by inviting Claudio, as a punishment, to marry his niece / second daughter / Beatrice, after he has made a public show of his remorse by reading out an epitaph in which he admits her innocence / praises her beauty / confesses his love for her.

2. For Benedick the problem of fighting his best friend in a duel is resolved because Claudio admits he was wrong / everyone accepts Claudio is innocent, having been tricked by Don John / Beatrice says she's changed her mind.

3. Hero explains her re-appearance by saying Claudio's love has raised her / the defiled Hero is dead and the living Hero is a virgin / the priest made her do it.

4. Beatrice and Benedick suddenly find it hard to admit they love each other any 'more than reason', so their friends resolve the stand-off by admitting it was all a trick / producing evidence in the form of love poems written by each / suggesting they all dance instead.

5. When they are about to dance, news comes that Don John has been caught, so Don Pedro goes off to deal with him / the party is interrupted as he confesses and is sentenced / Benedick says not to stop the dancing, he'll sort him out the next day.
