

Teaching notes

- Before the lesson, print and cut out the images on the following page.
- Give each child an image. Ask them to examine it closely and to describe exactly what they can see.
- Then ask the children to use these clues to work out where in the story their picture is taken from. Return to the book. Can the children locate their picture in the book? Can they tell which page it is from?

