

The following words and their definitions are mixed up! Number each word and put the same number next to the corresponding definition.

Armistice	Rules about how a country is governed.
Constitution	When money becomes worthless.
Proportional representation	An attempt to take power by force.
Putsch	A government which is made up of two or more parties.
Coalition	The system of voting whereby the number of seats in parliament matches the number of votes for any party.
Democracy	The money that Germany had to pay to the Allies for war damages.
Hyper-inflation	A peace agreement.
Reparations	An agreement to stop fighting.
The 'Stab in the back' theory	Government by the people, usually through elected leaders.
Treaty	The belief that the politicians had betrayed Germany by surrendering at the end of the war.

Answers

Armistice - An agreement to stop fighting.

Constitution - Rules about how a country is governed.

Proportional representation - The system of voting whereby the number of seats in parliament matches the number of votes for any party.

Putsch - An attempt to take power by force.

Coalition - A government which is made up of two or more parties.

Democracy - Government by the people, usually through elected leaders.

Hyper-inflation - When money becomes worthless.

Reparations - The money that Germany had to pay to the Allies for war damages.

The 'Stab in the back' theory - The belief that the politicians had betrayed Germany by surrendering at the end of the war.

Treaty - A peace agreement.