

Choose a character from a novel/play/short story/poem that you have been studying.

Draw pictures of items that you think your character would carry in their bag and write a brief description. You could also draw symbols that represent the character such as food, animals, weather etc. For example you could draw storm clouds to represent a 'moody' character.

