Challenge 4

Many words can be used to create cohesion within a sentence and to make links between sentences such as connectives (conjunctions and adverbs), pronouns and prepositions.

Circle the words which are connecting words or phrases creating cohesion in the sentences below.

Conjunctions

1. The cat chased the mouse and the mouse dropped the cheese.
2. The cat took the cheese while the dog walked into the room.

Adverbs

3. The cat ate the cheese as a result of the mouse dropping the cheese.
4. Meanwhile, the dog stared at the cat and he licked his lips.

Pronouns

5. The dog saw the cat eating the cheese and he really wanted to take a bite.
6. The mouse was very unhappy and wanted his cheese back.

Prepositions

7. During the night, the mouse tried to take the cheese from the cat.
8. There was a loud bang and the cat jumped onto the table with the cheese.
